LIFEGUARDS at Guildford Spectrum have beaten hundreds of competitors and named among the top 10 in the country after winning a triathlon pools competition.

Four lifeguards at the leisure centre gained the winning spots in a contest run by the Institute of Sport and Recreation Management. These included sport and leisure assistant Ben Grill, who came sixth out of 567 competitors, and his colleagues Michelle Dunbar, Joe Craggs and Jezz Freeman who tied in ninth position. As a centre, Spectrum came second in the country out of the 50 sites.

Spectrum pools manager Simon Tomlins said: "It's a fantastic result for Spectrum and its customers. I'm very proud of our lifeguards' achievements and would like to thank training officer Natalie Kirk in particular for developing the team to this high standard."
